FREE RECLINING CHAIR CARS.

"The Henderson Route"—Always First.
The traveling public will be pleased to learn of the latest innovation in the way of comfort in travel for its patrons
which is now being offered by that most popular railroad, the "Henderson Route," which road has been rightly termed the "Kentuckian's Official Route to the West and Southwest."

It has just been announced from the general office of the Louisville, Henderson & St. Louis Railway that they now have in service on their night trains
between Louisville and St. Louis, Free Reclining Chair Cars, which have just been received from the shops and are a revelation in the car builder's art.

The cars are strictly up-to-date, first-class "palaces of travel" on wheels, and this is only one of the many surprises
which are promised the public for the "World's Fair travel" by the Henderson Route.

Among other advantages offered in these highly finished cars, a few of the most important points only are mentioned:

They are solidly vestibuled and are furnished with sixty-four reclining chairs, which are upholstered in beautiful green plush, in addition to smoking
and toilet rooms, the smoking rooms being finished throughout in leather.
They are also fitted up with triple strucks, which feature will do away with the jerk, jar and strain incident to travel in the ordinary railway coach,
and insures a smooth, comfortable ride.
This should prove more than a popular feature in train service to the traveling public, and you can only suggest that in traveling you "get the Henderson Route" habit.

FLOODS IN INDIANA.

Danger of a Water Famine in Indianapolis.Much Damage to Property Resulted in Different Parts of the State—Several Lives Lost and Narrow Escapes Were Made.

Indianapolis, Ind., March 28.—White river continued to rise throughout the day until all former high water marks
had been passed. At 9 o'clock a height of 17 feet 8 inches was reached. This was six inches above the highest previous record. The river was still rising at this time and the officials of the water company predicted that the 18
foot mark would be reached.

With the continued rise of the river
the danger of a water famine becomes more imminent. With a foot of water in the engine room the employees of the West Washington street pumping station feared that the plant would have to be shut down. Four more inches of water, it is said, would force a suspension. Should the Washington street station be crippled the city would be entirely cut of the water supply, as the Indiana avenue pumping station was abandoned with the breaking of the Fall creek levee Saturday.

Realizing the seriousness of the situation the city officials late Sunday
decided to appeal to the national guard
for protection. Worn out with the exertion of the past three days and suffering from exposure and the loss of sleep, the city policemen and firemen were able no longer to keep at their work. Two companies of the national guard were immediately ordered to report for police duty. These are under command of Maj. Conde and will aid in protecting property and life.

The terrors of the flood were greatly increased by the suspension of the power house of the Indianapolis Traction and Terminal Co. Water flooded the engine rooms and not a car moved after 5 o'clock. Hundreds of persons dependent upon trolleys to reach their places of residence were stranded from home. Late Sunday night a few of the city cars were operated with power secured from the interurban companies. The company officials announced that the water would have to recede more than three feet and a half before they could turn their fly wheels.

With the continued rise of White river hundreds of families living in the low lands had to abandon their homes.

Many houses were swept down stream and dashed to pieces against the stone bridges. It was generally thought late Saturday night that the greatest danger had been passed and that those not yet water bound need
have no further fear, but the situation
became alarming early Sunday and warning was sent out to all living in the bottoms.

The policemen and firemen were again called upon to conduct rescue work. Many families had delayed too long and were unable to leave their flood besieged homes. Boats and wagons were used as on the two days previous in getting the water bound residents to places of safety.

Brownstown, Ind., March 28.—The country for miles around Brownstown
is under several feet of water and White river is still rising rapidly. The pumping station and the power house
and nearly all of the factories have been flooded and have suspended operations. Sunday the levee, which protected thousands of acres of farming land, broke and the entire territory has been inundated. Samuel Brown and Dunham Robertson barely escaped being drowned in White river. The river had overflowed the bottoms at the edge of town and the two men put out in a boat to reach some grain on the opposite side of the stream. The craft
was caught by the current and capsized, and they were being swept down
the torrent when they caught a large drift which had accumulated where some trees grew. They were compelled to wait for several hours before rescuers took them off.

From a point in the middle of the flood below Brownstown gunshots
were heard all day and evening, and it is believed that a person or several persons are in distress in the midst of the flood.

The railroads in Jackson county
have sustained immense damage as the result of the flood. Not a train on the Southern Indiana road has passed either in or out of Brownstown for 24 hours, and there is little prospect that traffic will be resumed until Tuesday night. A large railroad bridge near Cortland is half submerged and is expected to go out at any moment.

Dr. John Clifford, of Stendell, drove on a bridge over Patoka river and it floated away. Striking a tree, the bridge was overturned, both horses
were drowned and the physician saved his life by climbing into a tree. He was rescued several hours later.

White river rose three feet Saturday at Petersburg and is still rising.
In many places the river is ten miles wide, and much stock has been drowned.

Noblesville, Ind., March 28.—The Automobile Accident.

New York, March 28.—Four persons
in an automobile, owned and driven by Jerome Yeager, were thrown out while the car was swinging round a sharp curve in Central park. Miss Florence Maas was killed and Solomon
Strook was seriously injured.

The San Domingo Revolution.
Washington, March 28.—Information received at the navy department Tuesday from Adm. Wise, at Quantanamo, indicates that the Morales government
is making headway in the revolutionary contest in San Domingo.

flood at Noblesville began to recede
early Sunday, leaving behind it much desolation. The damage done surpasses all records.

The large bridge on the Central Indiana railroad, near Noblesville, is a twisted mass of steel lying at the bottom of the river. A wrecking crew has been at work on the bridge of the Lake Erie & Western railroad since daylight, but no trains have been able to cross.

A washout occurred under the grade
of the Indianapolis Northern in Hamilton county, which can not be repaired for several days. No cars have been running since Saturday morning.

The southern part of Noblesville,
which was supposed to be out of danger, is Sunday under water.

No one was drowned, but there was much suffering and several deaths
may occur from exposure. Hundreds of people were forced to spend the night in empty storerooms and livery stables.

The creeks in all parts of Hamilton county are still out of their banks,
and it is reported that dozens of the bridges will be destroyed. The American strawboard works and the box factory are still under water, and at this time the damage can not be estimated. The water on Strawboard avenue, in the southern part of Noblesville, has reached the tops of the windows in the lower stories of the houses. Many homes with their contents have been destroyed.

The Noblesville water works plant
and power-house are still flooded, and the city is without fire protection or light.

Much damage was done at St. Paul by the flood. The stone quarries are all under water, and the small streams are raging. Flat Rock river and the small streams are raging. Flat Rock river is higher than was ever known.

Bluffton, Ind., March 28.—The Wabash river has been rising steadily
since Saturday night and Sunday night
it was higher than it has been for 20 years. Hundreds of acres of the lowlands are under water, and people
here are fearful that the reservoir at Celina may break, causing great loss of life. The road leading north of the Bluffton and another to the east
are both under water and impassable.
Dr. C. L. Landfair, of this city, in trying to reach town over the North road narrowly escaped drowning. His horse fell off the grade and slipped down a steep embankment into ten feet of water. The horse was drowned and the doctor stood on the overturned buggy, almost submerged, until rescued, in a half frozen condition,
by Henry Reed and Wilbert Kellogg,
who reached him with ropes. Families
of Wm. Fields, David Hurt and Wm.
Dilbone, living on the north bank of the Wabash, were rescued in boats,
their houses being filled with water.

Terre Haute, Ind., March 28.—The water reached its highest stage here
Sunday night. In West Terre Haute,
a district where the high water has not reached since 1883, 50 houses are under water and about 200 people have been driven from their homes. The national road is under about six inches
of water. At Taylorsville, a suburb, everyone has been driven from their homes with the exception of Mrs. Taylor, widow of the founder of the town,
who refuses to go.

The Trenton interurban line is under 15 feet of water and the track has been washed out north of Numa. A 500 foot fill which is just above the interurban line and on which the C.
& I. tracks are located has been washed out, leaving the trestle work without support. The trestles were weighted down with engines Sunday afternoon.

Delphi, Ind., March 28.—A break in the Wabash levee Sunday flooded nearly the whole city to a depth of about six feet. The water rushed to the Monon railroad grade, where it stopped. There is only a small culvert through the embankment and as the water is rising rapidly the situation is serious. The citizens are thinking of dynamiting the grade in order
to relieve the city from greater calamity.

Wabash, Ind., March 28.—The Wabash at this point is receding. The Wabash Paper Co. has sustained the greatest damage. All manufacturing plants which were closed on account of the flood will not resume operations
until the last of the week.

Marion, Ind., March 28.—Three lives
have been lost in the flood between Gas City and Jonesboro. Teddy Mc-Govern, Robert Howe and William Carter, in efforts to rescue the family
of James Martin from a dwelling caught in the midststream, were drowned or frozen to death in the branches of trees and in the driftwood. Willis
Carter, who was taken out of a floating house after more than 12 hours
spent in the flood, is dying from ex-posure. The family of James Martin, five in all, were rescued unharmed before the house broke in fragments and was carried away.

Mrs. Jefferson Davis Ill.
Atlantic City, N. J., March 28.—Mrs.
Jefferson Davis, widow of president of the southern confederacy, who came here from New York after an illness,
was Saturday night stricken with an attack of acute indigestion, is recovering.

Objects to Sternberg's Promotion.
Washington, March 28.—Secretary
Taft has made an adverse report on the bill which provides for the promotion to a major generality on the retired list of Brig. Gen. Geo. M. Sternberg, retired, formerly surgeon general of the army.

Preached on the Hill of Mars.
Athens, March 28.—Rev. John Potts, of Toronto, Ont., preached on the hill
of Mars Sunday to the delegates to the world's Sunday-school convention. The ministers and delegates repeated St.
Paul's address to the Athenians.

ANOTHER ATTEMPT.

Effort Made to Sink Merchant Vessels at Port Arthur.The Japanese, However, Failed to Block the Entrance to the Inner Roadstead and Their Vessels
Were Driven Away.

St. Petersburg, March 28.—An official dispatch from Port Arthur to the emperor says that at 1 o'clock Sunday morning the Russian searchlights
disclosed four large merchant steamers making for the entrance to the harbor, supported by six torpedo boats.

A heavy fire was opened on them by the batteries and some war ships.

The torpedo boat Stilni, commanded by Lieut. Krinzki, turned the merchant vessels from their course by blowing up the prow of the first and then boldly attacked the enemy's torpedo boats. In the fierce fight which followed Chief Engineer Swyreff, of the Stilni, and six marines were killed
and the commander and 12 men
were injured.

The Japanese plan to blow up the entrance to Port Arthur was frustrated, however, and the channel is still clear.

Vice Adm. Makaroff, commanding
the Russian naval forces at Port Ar-

YI HIUNG, EMPEROR OF KOREA,
With His Son, the Crown Prince.

thur, has sent the following telegram
to the emperor:

"I beg most humbly to report that
at 2 o'clock this morning the enemy made a second attempt to block the entrance to the inner roadstead. For this purpose they dispatched four large merchant steamers, conveyed by six torpedo boats, to the entrance.

"The enemy's ships were promptly discovered by the searchlights and were bombarded by the batteries and by the guardships Bohr and Otavajny.
"Fearing the enemy's ships might break through, Lieut. Krinzki, commanding the guard torpedo boat Stilni, attacked the enemy and destroyed the bow of the foremost Japanese steamer with a torpedo. This steamer turned to the right and was followed by two others with the result that the three were stranded to the right of the entrance. A fourth steamer went to the right of the enemy's ships and likewise sank to the side of the Fairway.
The Stilni then battled with the enemy's six torpedo boats. Engineer Artifice Swyreff and six seamen were killed and the commander and 12 seamen were wounded.

"At daybreak the enemy's battleship
and cruiser squadrons appeared, and I proceeded with the fleet under my charge to meet the enemy.

"The second attempt of the Japanese to block the entrance to Port Arthur has failed, thanks to the energetic defense by the sea and land forces who acted as they did during the first attempt.

"The harbor remains perfectly
clear."

The War Will Last Two Years.

Paris, March 28.—The Matin's Harbin correspondent says a rumor is being circulated there to the effect that the war will last two years, and that it will not really begin before September.

The Governor Issues a Proclamation.

St. Petersburg, March 28.—A proclamation issued by the Chinese governor of Manchuria has been received here. It directs that all Chinese in Manchuria shall observe neutrality and attend strictly to business.

Stabbed in the Back.

Pittsburg, Pa., March 28.—John Maughrey, a prominent young man of Duquesne, while walking along a street
in that town Sunday night, was stabbed in the back by an Italian and is now dying at the McKee Short hospital.

Fleet of Japanese Transports.

Che Foo, March 28.—The steamer
Active has arrived here from Kobe, Japan. She reports that on the 25th inst. she passed a fleet of Japanese transports conveyed by cruisers in the inland sea. They were bound for Korea.

The Emperor's Donation.

Tokio, March 28.—The emperor Sunday donated 100,000 yen to the soldiers' relief society. Counts Mats-ugata and Inouye, promoters of the society who had an audience with the emperor, were given the donation.

HADN'T THOUGHT OF THAT.

There Were Obstacles to the Free Movement of Doors That Opened Outward.

There was a man who had read that it was safer to make the doors of all houses
open outward instead of inward, says the Chicago Tribune.

He remembered it, and when he built a house of his own he had all the outer
doors hung in accordance with that idea.

One bright morning in March he moved into his new home.

Late in the evening of the same day it began to snow, and it kept on snowing until the ground was covered a foot deep.

Then the wind blew and piled the snow
in drifts.

After which it began to rain.
The rain later turned to sleet and the mercury sank 20 degrees.

And the next morning the neighbors
were astonished beyond measure at the sight of a frenzied man with his head thrust
out of a second story front window of that house, gesticulating wildly to a boy on the sidewalk and begging him for heaven's sake to go and call the fire department
and have the ice and snow blasted away
from his doors so he could open them and get out of the house!

A Wonderful Discovery.

Broadland, S. Dak., March 28.—Quite a sensation has been created here by the publication of the story of G. W. Gray, who after a special treatment for three months was prostrate and helpless and given up to die with Bright's Disease.
Bright's Disease has always been considered incurable, but evidently from the story told by Mr. Gray, there is a remedy which will cure it, even in the most advanced stages. This is what he says:

"I was helpless as a little babe. My wife and I searched everything and read
everything we could find about Bright's Disease, hoping that I would be able to find a remedy. After many failures my wife insisted that I should try Dodd's Kidney Pills. I praise God for the day
when I decided to do so, for this remedy met every phase of my case and in a short time I was able to get out of bed,
and after a few weeks' treatment I was a strong, well man. Dodd's Kidney Pills saved my life."

A remedy that will cure Bright's Disease
will cure any lesser Kidney Disease.
Dodd's Kidney Pills are certainly the most wonderful discovery which modern medical research has given to the world.

Wilfully Misunderstood.

Miss Butte—He said he knew I'd take

Make Lazy Liver Lively

You know very well how you feel when your liver don't act.
Bile collects in the blood, bowels become constipated and your whole system is poisoned. A lazy liver is an invitation for a thousand pains and aches to come and dwell with you. Your life becomes one long measure of irritability and despondency and bad feeling.

WORK WHILE YOU SLEEP

Act directly, and in a peculiarly happy manner on the liver and bowels, cleansing, purifying, revitalizing every portion of the liver, driving all the bile from the blood, as is soon shown by increased appetite for food, power to digest it, and strength to throw off the waste. Beware of imitations! 10c., 25c. All

"Do It To-Day."

The time-worn injunction, "Never put off 'til to-morrow what you can do to-day," is now generally presented in this form: "Do it to-day!" That is the terse advice we want to give you about that hacking cough or demolishing cold with which you have been struggling for several days, perhaps weeks. Take some reliable remedy for it to-day—and let that remedy be Dr. Boschree's German Syrup, which has been in use for over thirty-five years.

A few doses of it will undoubtedly relieve your cough or cold, and its continued use for a few days will cure you completely. No matter how deep seated your cough, even if dread consumption has attacked your lungs, German Syrup will surely effect a cure—as it has done before in thousands of apparently hopeless cases of lung trouble. New trial bottles, 25c; regular size, 75c. At all druggists.—W. T. Brooks.

Good Spirits.

Good spirits don't all come from Kentucky. Their main source is the liver—and all the fine spirits ever made in the Blue Grass State could not remedy a bad liver or the hundred-and-one ill effects it produces. You can't have good spirits and a bad liver at the same time. Your liver must be in fine condition if you would feel buoyant, happy and hopeful, bright of eye, light of step, vigorous and successful in your pursuits. You can put your liver in fine condition by using Green's August Flower—the greatest of all medicines for the liver and stomach and a certain cure for dyspepsia or indigestion. It has been a favorite household remedy for over thirty-five years. August Flower will make your liver healthy and active and thus insure you a liberal supply of "good spirits." Trial size, 25c; regular bottles, 75c. At all druggists.—W. T. Brooks.

THRO' KENTUCKY.

Thro' the grand state of Kentucky,
Where the "Old Home" got its name,
Where the fields are overflowing
With the yellow ripening grain.

Here tobacco plants are growing,
In the fields not sown with corn,
Tobacco plants—big as cactus—
Just as sure as you are born.

Yes, they're large as good-sized cactus,
Larger in our home-like view,
But it's of a fine grade as
Is that old "Kentucky Dew."

Here all people reap a harvest,
Money in bank from year to year,
All the green calamity howlers,
Lose their jobs when they land here.

Here the "dry" ways are the highways.
Built high and dry from rains and flood,
Here the "good roads" delegation,
Swear the roads are sutt'nly good.

But of pikes and highways finest,
There's a "road" that suits my taste;
Tis the line of Solid Comfort,
And the trains let no time waste.

From Kentucky to St. Louis, Operates this road of class,
Across the famous old "Green River"
On its roadbed smooth as glass.

Would you know the road I speak of?
Listen then to my advice,
For you'll need it in your business,
On your trip to Paradise.

In your travels to St. Louis—
Hurry! beat them under the wire,
"Get the 'Henderson Route' habit"—
'Tis a good one to acquire.

—[Jack "Henderson" Gallagher]

THE CHAMPION LOSES.

James Britt Given the Decision
Over "Young Corbett."

He Was Heavily Punished, Yet Was
at All Times Willing to Take More, and Finally Outgamed
the Champion.

San Francisco, March 26.—James Britt, of California, was given the decision Friday night over William Rothwell, better known as Young Corbett, of Colorado, in a 20-round contest at Woodward's pavilion.

Up to the 17th round Corbett's advantage was apparent, but in that round Britt rallied and rained right and left blows on various portions of Corbett's anatomy, forcing the champion to clinch to save himself. The styles of the two boxers were entirely distinctive. Britt fought for the body
most of the time, while Corbett devoted his attack for the head, face and jaw. Britt weighed just 129 pounds, but Corbett's weight was not made public, though it is understood
was at least a pound and a half below the agreed weight, 130 pounds.

Both men fought hard in every round. Britt, in his crouching attitude, was able to guard his stomach effectively, though Corbett was able to land hard on his head and jaw.
In the first few rounds Britt found the Denver man's stomach repeatedly,
though his blows lacked steam.

It was without doubt the greatest fight fought in California. Britt's ability to assimilate punishment and his endurance were simply marvelous.
At no time during the 20 rounds did Britt break ground. He always brought the fight to Corbett, who was breaking ground and clinching most of the time. Britt was heavily punished, yet was at all times willing to take more, and finally outgamed the champion. The pace that both men set was of a nature to make both men tire. However, their condition
brought them, after a minute's respite,
to the center of the ring with renewed vigor. Britt was better at the out-fighting, Corbett superior in the infighting. Britt had the best footwork and the greatest speed. Corbett showed himself the cleverer fighter at times
and the heavier hitter.

After the fight Referee Grane said:
"I simply gave the decision to the man who had the best of the fight."

A batch of challenges was received and read by Announcer Jordan. Buddy Ryan, Eddy Hanlon and Kid Herman challenged the winner of the Britt-Corbett fight. Numerous local celebrities also were there with challenges, among them being Spider Welch and Jack Cordell.

A telegram was received from Sam
Harris, challenging the winner on behalf of Terry McGovern, at 139 pounds.

Shutting Out American Beer.

Washington, March 26.—Information which will interest the beer exporters comes from United States Consul Ayme, at Para, Brazil. The new tariff on beer, he says, is practically prohibitive. The old tariff was, in round figures, 25 cents a bottle—the new is 76 cents.

Won by Cambridge.

London, March 26.—The 61st annual boat race between crews representing the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge was rowed Friday over the usual course from Putney to Mort-
lake, about four and a quarter miles,
and was won by Cambridge by four lengths.

Joe Gans Given the Decision.

Baltimore, March 26.—Joe Gans
was given the decision on points in his 15-round bout with Jack Blackburn, of Philadelphia, Friday night,
before the Eureka Athletic and Social club. Gans did most of the fighting.

The Week's Failures.

New York, March 26.—Business failures in the United States for the week ending with March 24, number 215, against 193 last week, 175 in the like week in 1903. In Canada failures for the week number 18, against 17 last week.

Fight Stopped in the Fifth Round.

Philadelphia, March 26.—Kid Carter and George Cole met at the Lenox Athletic club Friday night for a six-round bout, but Cole punished Carter
so severely that the referee stopped
the fight in the fifth round.

SWEEP BY A TORNADO.

Great Loss of Life and Destruction of Property in Missouri.

Memphis, Tenn., March 28.—A special from Caruthersville, Mo., says:
A tornado swept the country 20 miles north of here Saturday night, causing a great loss of life and destroying thousands of dollars worth of property. The wires have been down all day and authentic news is hard to get,
but as belated reports come in the loss of life and property increases. It is now known that six lives have been lost and thousands of dollars worth of property destroyed.

The lives of the Shuemaker family,
living near Portageville, four in number, were blotted out and their home demolished. Wesley Miller and wife, living two miles north of Mt. Pleasant, were killed and their home demolished. Their bodies were found 200 yards away badly mutilated. Mr.
Miller was a wealthy mill owner and planter. Fifteen hundred dollars in money belonging to him was found scattered over the ground. Much stock was killed and wounded.

MISSILE STRUCK THE ENGINEER.

His Unconscious Body Hung Half Way
Out the Cab Window.

St. Louis, March 28.—When the "Meteor," the westbound fast passenger train on the St. Louis & San Francisco road, pulled out of Union station
Sunday a missile struck Engineer James C. Lindberg on the head, and
his unconscious body hung half way
out of the cab window as the train
suddenly plunged ahead at terrific speed, the throttle having been jerked
open as the engineer fell back. Fireman Charles F. Buschert sprang to the throttle and brought the train to a standstill after its flight of eight blocks
through the railroad yards. Engineer Lindberg's skull was found to have been fractured and blood was flowing from the wound. He was hurriedly removed to a hospital without having regained consciousness, and his injuries
were pronounced so dangerous that he will probably die.

GEN. THOMAS O. OSBORNE.

The Veteran of the Civil War Died in Washington of Apoplexy.

Washington, March 28.—Brevet Maj.
Gen. Thomas O. Osborne, of Chicago,
for many years United States minister to the Argentine republic, who came to Washington a few days ago with his niece, Mrs. C. I. Haskins, of Des Moines, Ia., for a visit, died here of apoplexy Sunday afternoon. The funeral will take place on Wednesday
next and it is expected that in view of Gen. Osborne's distinguished services in the United States volunteers during the civil war, that full military honors will be accorded. The interment will be made in the Arlington
national cemetery.

The Work Is Finished.

Gov. Beckham Friday concluded consideration of the measures left on his desk at the adjournment of the Legislature, approving seven bills and allowing the remaining twelve to become laws without his approval. The work of the last General Assembly will consist of 131 laws, the Governor having vetoed 15 acts wholly, and two in part. Among the bills approved Saturday was the measure appropriating $20,000 for a monument to Gov. Goebel. Among bills that became laws without his signature are the bill increasing annuity of A. and M. College $15,000 annually; the bill regulating the speed of automobiles; the bill authorizing the Jefferson Fiscal Court to increase the Country Treasurer's salary to $2,500; the bill increasing the Jefferson Criminal Court stenographer's salary to $2,500, and the bill making more specific the law as to fees of Clerks.

Severely Criticises the Governor.

In a public statement Attorney General Hays severely criticises the action of Gov. Beckham in vetoing the bill providing for assistants at a yearly cost of $6,200 for the Attorney General's department, and declares that the veto was not prompted by the spirit of economy. He charges that the employment of attorneys for the State outside of the Attorney General's Department in the last four years has cost the State $124,681.52, and was contrary to the statute. Furthermore, he says the Governor and Auditor have, in addition, given employment to special attorneys in 300 more cases now on the dockets and that these cases will cost the State an additional $60,000, at the lowest estimate. He says if an attempt is made to employ attorneys outside of his department within the next four years he will fight it in the courts.

THE BOURBON NEWS.

SWIFT CHAMP, - EDITOR AND OWNER.

BOTH 'PHONES, - - - - - 124.

THE choice of the Democrats of Kentucky for the Democratic nomination for President this year should be determined only after thorough consideration of the claims and chances of those who may aspire to the nomination. The fitness of character of the man to be named by a great party to carry its standard should outweigh all other considerations. Every Democrat who desires the success of the party and the welfare of his country should act with full understanding in a matter so vitally important.

GOOD STUFF.—Pabst Beer now on sale. Nothing half so good. Get the best always and take no other. Pabst Beer has stood test for years. It is pure and wholesome. (18mar1m) ST. CHARLES BAR.

CIGAR PLANT CHANGES HANDS.—Mr. Thomas Hayne, of Dayton, O., has succeeded Mr. Geo. W. Altmeyer as proprietor of the cigar plant in this city. Mr. Hayne will continue to manufacture the now famous Stoner cigar, the best five cent cigar sold anywhere. He is an experienced cigar manufacturer and will use the best of tobacco in his goods. The home merchants should always call for them. This is a home industry and should be patronized by home people, especially when the goods deserve the recognition by the public, as does the Stoner cigar.

WALL PAPER.—I have just received one of the handsomest lines of Wall Paper ever brought to our city. Call and see for yourself. First-class hanger to put it on. GEO. W. DAVIS.

He's All Right.

The Carlisle Mercury, in noticing the most prominent and useful members of the Legislature, says: "Hon. A. S. Thompson, of Bourbon, besides occupying other good Committee positions, was a member of the powerful Committee on Rules, and was in a position to exert considerable influence on legislative matters. He was recognized as the watch dog of the treasury, and that the lid was kicked off the treasury strongbox was no fault of his. Mr. Thompson is satisfied with the two terms in the Halls of legislation and is now a candidate for deputy sheriff of Bourbon county. He is a worthy gentleman, and a staunch and true Democrat."

The Boone-Yaki Company.

Prof. Ed. Boone, the mental marvel will be at the Grand Opera House, this city, on April 7th, with the Boone-Yaki Company, and give one of his marvelous entertainments in mind-reading, hypnotism, etc. Prof. Boone is indeed a mental marvel and his exhibition will be one of wonder. The company has its own scenery, which is new and beautiful.

The entertainment will be given as a benefit to Prof. Boone's father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Boone, who reside in this city, and the house should be packed.

BUY THE BEST.—You will not be dressed up in the proper manner if you have not got on a good looking and good feeling pair of shoes. To do this go to Geo. McWilliams and get a pair of the best the market affords. His line is complete, both in ladies' and gentlemen shoes, and he handles only the best, and you will always find the best the cheapest.

MYSTERIOUSLY DISAPPEARED.—Capt. W. T. Havens mysteriously disappeared from his home, at Frankfort, and the whole town is aroused in search for the missing man.

After supper he was sitting in the drawing room in his dressing gown, cap and slippers. He arose and went to the front door and went out. His wife and daughter became alarmed at his absence, and raised an alarm when he could not be found. Mrs. Parker says she saw a man leap off the Kentucky bridge at between 7 and 7:30 o'clock, and conjecture is that the man was Capt. Havens. He was sixty years of age and formerly of Mt. Sterling.

LATER.—The man seen leap from the bridge proved to be Capt. Havens.

SHOES.—If your shoes pinch let us fit you with a pair of Queen Quality make. HARRY SIMON, Sole Agent.

Call On Hon. C. M. Thomas.

Recognizing your fitness for the office and thinking it is time that Bourbon should make a bid for National representation, we earnestly ask you to become a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Congress from this, the Seventh Congressional District.

MANY DEMOCRATS.

It is indeed time that Bourbon make a bid for Congressional honors, and no one could be selected that would fill the position with more honor to himself and old Bourbon than the Hon. Claude M. Thomas. Eminent in every particular, and an unswerving Democrat from birth, he should make a very formidable candidate. It is hoped that Mr. Thomas will consent to make the race.

BIG LAND DEAL.—Fred J. Andrews, of Pennsylvania, has closed a deal with C. E. Smith, Lexington, for the purchase of 4,000 acres of timber and mineral land in Knott and Perry counties. The land is purchased for a syndicate, but the price per acre is not given out. It is known that the entire amount will reach over $300,000. Mr. Andrews says several mills will be erected on the property and four coal mines opened for cannel and bituminous coals.

LAUNDRY.—I send off laundry to Winchester—work guaranteed. Your patronage solicited. 2t J. E. CRAVEN.

The Kids Must Go To School.

The late Legislature passed a law making it compulsory on the citizens of cities of the fourth class, of which Paris is one, to send their children to school—at least all these between the ages of 7 and 14 years—unless they are physically disabled from attending, or have already acquired the common school branches of education required by law.

It is made the duty of the Board of Education, the first week in every July, to appoint a Truant Officer who shall hunt up all cases of truancy; and after notification to the parents, if they still fail to send their children, they may be arrested and fined not less than $5 nor more than $20 for the first offense, nor less than $10 nor more than $50 for the second and every subsequent offense, and cost of suit. The pay shall not be less than $1 nor more than $2.50 per day for the Truant Officer.

WARNING.—Spring is near at hand, warm weather is coming, your butter will melt, your milk will sour, unless you put in one of J. T. Hinton's New Star Refrigerators. "They are the best that is."

WANTED.—Highest price paid for eggs in cash or trade. GAUNCE & CHIPLEY, Opp. Opera House.

ELOPED.—William H. Potts, a prosperous young farmer, of Bath, and Miss Carrie W. Bramblett, a pretty and accomplished young lady and the only daughter of George W. Bramblett, a wealthy farmer, eloped to Mt. Sterling, where they were married by the Rev. H. G. Turner.

WHISKIES.—VanHook whisky $2.00 per gallon. Melwood, Chicken Cock, Sam Clay and Jas. E. Pepper Whisky always on hand at cheapest prices. FRANK SALOSHIN.

Another Terrific Storm.

There was another terrific rain and thunder storm Friday night. It was probably the unspent fury of the severe storm which swept over the West. At North Middletown, this county, buildings were unroofed, barns and stables blown down and residence property seriously damaged. Several narrow escapes are reported. The storm was the worst in years and the loss to farmers is thousands of dollars. The wind resembled a cyclone. In Montgomery county, the large tobacco barn of G. W. Denton, with eight or ten other barns, were laid low. Some stock was killed.

Loss to Louisville property owners from the storm was estimated at not less than $50,000.

The Millers' Association.

The Central Kentucky Millers' Association met in special session at the Phoenix Hotel, Lexington, Friday, to discuss the conditions of the growing wheat crop and other minor questions affecting the milling industry.

Reports submitted at the meeting indicate that this year's wheat crop will be short, which may have a tendency to keep up the present high price of flour.

Another matter of importance discussed was the available supply of old wheat on hand, which to a large extent regulates the flour output until the new crop comes in and consequently affects the market.

About twenty-five of the leading millers of Central Kentucky were present at the meeting of the association, which comprises about thirty Blue Grass counties.

B. M. Renick, of Paris Milling Co., attended the meeting.

WEEK OF PRAYER.—The C. W. B. M. will observe the week of prayer at the church every afternoon of this week at 4 o'clock.

WIEDEMAN has the goods. They are there with their Bock. (mar18-4t)

FINE MILLINERY.—The most complete and handsomest line of Spring and Summer Millinery ever brought to Paris can be found at the store of Mrs. Corne Watson Baird. Special pains were taken this season in selecting a stock to please the taste of the most modest to the most expensive, and you can not fail to find just what you want among this large stock. 2t

Go to Holliday's Green House for Bargains in Flowers, Floral designs furnished on short notice. Transplants, Poinsettias, Tomatoes. 225 W. Eighth St., 29-2t Home Phone 579.

ATTEMPTED SUICIDE.—Alexander Hogan aged 66, a prosperous farmer of Fayette, who was taken to the Good Samaritan Hospital Friday, suffering from a cerebro-spinal malady caused by a pistol wound received last Christmas, attempted suicide at that institution early Saturday morning, by hanging himself with a trunk strap.

WALL COLLAPSED.—The retaining wall at the Langston bridge, on the Interurban line, caved in Friday morning and the bridge was in such a condition that the cars could not cross. The cars could not run on schedule time as they had to transfer at this point, but the bridge was made temporarily safe Saturday and schedule time is now being made. The work on this wall seems to have been defective and the entire work will have to be done again.

REMOVAL.—John Connelly, the plumber has moved his shop to the storeroom adjoining Geo. Rassenfoss, on Main street. He is an experienced and up-to-date plumber and is now ready to take orders for any kind of work in this line. If you are contemplating any improvements, putting in a bathroom, connecting with the water main, call on Mr. Connelly before letting your contract if you want a first-class job. World's Fair March, 1904.

Mr. John C. Weber, director of Weber's Military Band of Cincinnati, known as the "Prize Band of America," has composed the St. Louis World's Fair March 1904 and dedicated it to the Louisiana Purchase Exposition. It will be distributed through the passenger department of the B. & O. S. W. R. R. World's Fair Route, at 10 cents per copy.

The music is in sheet form, arranged for the piano, being very handsomely gotten up, with highly illuminated title cover. Mr. John C. Weber is not only a great Musical Director, but he has written some very catchy and popular marches. The St. Louis World's Fair March is his latest success, and will add further to his fame.

Mr. Weber and his great organization of artists has twice defeated all comers in national contests at Elks' Reunions. The latest triumph was at Baltimore, Md., on the 21st of last July, when, in a notable contest, composed of the leading bands of America, won the first prize of $1,000. It is confidently expected that Mr. Weber's World's Fair March will become a popular air during the next year, and every household should have a copy of this music.

Send 10 cents in silver to the undersigned and copy of the World's Fair March will be mailed to your address.

FREE RECLINING CHAIR CARS ON THE POPULAR HENDERSON ROUTE BETWEEN

LOUISVILLE EVANSVILLE ST. LOUIS THE WEST AND SOUTHWEST

We are the originators of Free Reclining Chair Car Service between Louisville and St. Louis. Don't you think it would pay you, in traveling, to "Get The Henderson Route Habit?"—It will.

ASK US ABOUT IT.

GEO. L. GARRETT,
Traveling Passenger Agent,
L. J. IRWIN,
General Passenger Agent,
St. Louis, Mo.

SHE HAD THREATENED IT.

"You don't seem to be able to keep the children quiet, Maria. Bring them in to me and I'll sing to them."

"Oh, I've threatened them with that, mum, already, but it don't do any good."—Cincinnati Commercial Tribune.

The Old Man's Advice.

He—If you don't intend to break your engagement with me, why do you allow young Richmann to make you such valuable presents?

She—My father advised me to accept them.

He—Did? Why?

He said if I married you they might come handy on rent days.—N. Y. Weekly.

WOULDN'T HE LIKE IT?

Lady—What! you've just come out of prison? I wonder you are not ashamed to own it.

Ne'er-do-Well—I don't own it, lady—wish I did. I was only a lodger.—Ally Sloper.

Some Hope.

Mrs. Hiram Offen—What! another dish broken? See here, Bridget, at that rate, my dishes won't last a month.

Bridget—Oh, don't worry about that. O'll be 'avin' ye before a month, ma'am.—Philadelphia Press.

Epitaph.

Beneath this mound lies all we found
Of little Johnny Green.
He went one night, by candle light,
To get some gasoline.
—Judge.

AN ODDITY OF ANCESTRY.

"This," said Mrs. Gotrich, "is one of my distinguished ancestors—my great, great grandfather, in fact."

"Is it possible?" murmured Mr. Thichedde. "Why, he doesn't look to be a day over 40."—Chicago Tribune.

Going It Blind.

Parke—Poor old Jenkins! No wonder he failed—put all his money into a thing that he was entirely ignorant about.

Lane—Well, maybe it wasn't his fault. I've done the same thing.

"How's that?"

"Well, I've often put all my money into my wife's clothes."—Brooklyn Life.

Easy Victory.

Goodson—It was Lawer Townsmun that won my lawsuit for me.

Simply—Why, I thought he was on the opposing side.

Goodson—He was.—Tit-Bits.

Elsie Cheated.

Said an indignant mother to her young son, "Why did you strike little Elsie, you naughty boy?"

Dick, indignant in turn, exclaimed, "What did she want to cheat for, then?"

"How did she cheat?" asked mamma.

"Why," exclaimed Dick, "we were playing Adam and Eve, and she had the apple to tempt me with, and she never tempted me, but went and ate it up herself."—New World.

A Long-Felt Want.

There's a chance for some inventor To spend his days in clover,
By devising a cloth for overcoats That will fade like all over.

—Cincinnati Enquirer.

WILLING TO ILLUSTRATE.

"Daisy," said her distressed mother, "I don't see how you can get so dirty."

"Come on out and I'll show you," was the prompt reply.—The Barber-shop.

Advanced.

"You say that Lord Fucash's social position has improved since he married a rich American girl?"

"Yes, indeed. Formerly he was only a nobleman; but now he belongs to our heirestocracy."—Washington Star.

Cruel Girl.

The love-lorn youth heaved a sigh,
As the maid of his choice passed high,
For she had a new beau,
And he hadn't a sheau
For even one glance from her eye.
—Philadelphia Inquirer.

THE REASON.

"Why don't we celebrate Martha Washington's birthday?"

"Because no woman ever lets us know the date of her birth."—Chicago Chronicle.

Bad Start.

His wedding trip was sudden—
He was thinking of the halter,
And stepped upon her bridal train
While coming from the altar.
—Chicago Daily News.

Telling Tales.

Mr. Oldboy—Always respect gray hairs, my boy.

Tommy—Why? My ma doesn't.

Mr. Oldboy—You shouldn't say that. Tommy—She wouldn't dye them if she did.—Ally Sloper.

The Exact Size.

Patience—You say a cloud has come into his life the size of a man's hand?

Patience—No, I believe it is about the size of her papa's foot.—Yonkers Statesman.

Two Classes.

"Our club meetings," said Mrs. Uppisch, "are attended by the best people—the brains and culture of the city."

"Indeed!" exclaimed Mrs. Planebuddy, "and do your swell society folks really condescend to associate with them?"—Catholic Times and Star.

His Objection.

La Montt—Say, old man, there is a widow down the street, who keeps a tobacco store. Why don't you buy your cigars from her?

La Moyné—Because I never did fancy widow's weeds.—Chicago Daily News.

LOVE ON WHEELS.

BY JOHN WICKLIFFE GRAY.

Would she come to-day?

John Haworth leaned back in his invalid's chair and scanned every vehicle that appeared from the uptown horizon. He was seated in the big bay window that looked out over the trees and meadows and winding roads and paths of the park. Now and then the light June breeze wafted across the street the prattle of half a dozen children at play on the greensward nearest where the invalid sat. To the philosophic and the speculative, it was an ideal spot to study human nature as we find it on the sidewalk—the lights and shadows of the past shining dimly through the features of those who hurry by.

But the speculation of John Haworth ran in another direction. And every morning for two weeks it had been the same. Before that time he had helped to pass the tedious hours by watching the faces just below him on the street from the time they came into good view four doors north or south until they were gone, to give place to others.

There was a look of eagerness on the invalid's face as he glanced at his watch for the fifth time within the half hour. It lacked but five minutes now of the time when the Bicycle Girl, as he chose to call her, would pass through the entrance of the park almost opposite.

"I think he might take a bit more exercise, walking in the park, for instance, in the next day or so." John turned to see his mother and Dr. McRae, the family physician, enter the room. "There will be no further necessity for my services, I think. How does that sound, John?" he added, cheerily.

"Almost as good as the sight of home after two years in the Philippines, Doc. I think—" he broke off suddenly and turned his eyes to the street.

Yes, there she was. The same natty, tailor-made riding skirt and jacket; the same fluffy, dark hair that refused to be kept under the jauntiest of little caps.

The girl glanced up and—was it a bow? Or had she merely turned her head to guide her wheel into the park driveway. Who was she? he wondered, as he had scores of times before in those two weeks he had been sitting by the window slowly regaining the health that a long fever had stolen.

"I think I'll get out my bicycle in a day or so," he continued, after the interruption.

"A good idea, but, mind you, not too much at first. Take it easy, and the exercise will be of as much benefit as double the amount of indoor labor with dumb bells," answered the doctor.

"A case of pleasure and medicine, eh, Doc?" said the invalid, with a smile.

"Yes, pleasure is half the cure, with exercise or medicine," he answered.

It was three days later that John's bicycle, the trusted servant of other days, was brought forth from the attic and, with the help of the porter, put in condition.

Ah, but it was glorious to have even a little strength to pedal, thought John, as he took his first ride through the park. He was on the bicycle path that ran down among the alders, where it wound in and out like a snake, crossed a little bridge and then wound its way around the hill. It needed only a companion to make the day and his enjoyment perfect. And naturally he reverted to the Bicycle Girl who crossed into the park every morning.

He had not seen her since that day when Dr. McRae was in the room, and now, three days after, in desperation and growing fear that he would not see her again, he had come out alone.

Suddenly, out of a by-path, the girl of his thoughts darted. There was a simultaneous twist of front wheels away from each other to avoid a collision. In a moment, they were contemplating each other, with a foot of each on the ground and their handle bars touching.

There was a simultaneous laugh.

"Pardon me," he said, removing his cap.

"There's nothing to pardon," she said, smilingly, as both wheels were righted. John knew instinctively that she would smile like that.

"I see I have bent several spokes," said John. "I suppose I might as well straighten them now," he added.

John took out his kit, only to find his wrench missing.

"May I borrow your wrench?" he asked.

"Certainly, Mr. Haworth," she answered.

"You know my name?" he exclaimed, delighted as well as surprised at the turn of affairs.

"Yes, I was at college with your sister. And I want to thank you for a beautiful silk shawl you sent me, though we have never met. I am Josephine Randall." A scarcely perceptible color mounted to her cheek as she extended her hand. John remembered, now, the shawl he had placed in the homeward-bound box of curios for his sister's chum, Miss Randall, who was frequently mentioned in the letters he had received on the other side of the world.

"Both myself and the shawl are honored," he exclaimed, with warmth.

"We would have met before perhaps, had your sister been at home," Miss Randall went on.

"Now that we have met, may not we finish the ride together?" he asked, wistfully.

And thereafter the invalid soldier plied no more for a companion a wheel. Two bicycles instead of one crossed the street to the park every morning.

HAPPY WOMEN.

Should suffer in the face of evidence like this:

Mrs. Almira A. Jackson, of East Front St., Traverse City, Mich., says: "For twenty years I never knew what it was to have good health. Every physician consulted said I had liver trouble but their medicines did me no good. Just before I began using Doan's Kidney Pills I was almost paralyzed. I could hardly stand on my feet because of the numbness and lack of circulation. Had a knife been thrust into my kidneys the pain could not have been more intense. My sleep was disturbed by visions of distorted figures. The kidney secretions were annoyingly irregular and I was tortured with thirst and always bloated. I used seven boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills. The bloating subsided until I weighed one hundred pounds less, could sleep like a child and was relieved of the pain and the irregularity of the kidney action. My circulation is good and I feel better in every way."

A FREE TRIAL of this great kidney medicine which cured Mrs. Jackson will be mailed on application to any part of the United States. Address Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y. For sale by all druggists, price 50 cents per box.

AN AMPHIBIOUS TRIBE.

New Guinea Natives Who Live in the Swamps and Swim More Than They Walk.

A tribe that can hardly walk has been discovered in New Guinea. So unused are these people to walking on the solid ground that their feet bleed when they try to go any distance. They were discovered by Sir Francis P. Winter recently, says the New York Sun.

The tribe is that of the Aghaiambos, and since time immemorial they have lived in swamps, their houses being perched on bamboo poles and elevated about 12 feet above the mud and water.

As a result, since there is no solid ground anywhere near them, generation after generation of these people have depended entirely on canoeing and swimming. They are such good swimmers that they can glide over and between the half submerged reeds like water snakes, and it is as natural for an Aghaiambo to slip into the water to go next door as it is for a woman in this country to throw a shawl over her head and call on a neighbor.

They never leave their swamps, but remain hidden in them from the time they are born until they die. They are as shy as the crocodiles and reptiles that dwell there.

The life has changed their bodies so that they look unlike any other human beings in the world. As they never walk, their legs have become soft and flabby, and their feet are so soft that blood flows from the cracking skin as soon as they are called on to tread on hard ground.

Sir Francis Winter describes these beings as follows, in a report to the Australian government:

"The men would be of good stature, if their bodies, from the hips down, were in proportion to the upper part. They have good chests, thick necks and powerful arms. But from the hips down they were shrunken creatures, looking more like apes when viewed from the side, than like human beings.

"Their feet are short and broad and wonderfully thin, with weak toes. They are so feeble that they look almost as if they lacked joints.

"The feet of all the people whom I saw rested on the floor when they stood or sat in a way that reminded one irresistibly of wooden feet, because they were so helpless and clumsy."

FRENCH PANAMA SCANDAL.

The Big Scheme of De Lesseps Which Came to Such a Disastrous End.

The isthmus of Panama is a narrow strip of land, scarcely 21 miles wide at its narrowest point; but the canal, owing to the character of the land, would have a total length of about 46 miles, writes George Ethelbert Walsh, in "Cutting a Hemisphere in Two," in St. Nicholas. To cut a ship canal of this length, the early French company estimated, would cost $43,000,000 francs, which later was reduced by De Lesseps to 600,000,000 francs, or about $120,000,000 of our money. This huge cost did not deter the people of France from buying the bonds and stocks of the Panama Canal company, and the money was soon raised. The genius of the company was the man who had constructed the Suez canal, and his presence at the head of the undertaking was sufficient to give faith and confidence to all. De Lesseps himself was so confident of his success that he extended invitations to prominent men all over the world to attend the opening of the canal in 1888.

The first shipment of machinery and workmen arrived in Colon on February 21, 1881, and almost immediately began one of the most dramatic stories of modern times. Fraud, incompetency, mismanagement and lack of knowledge of the grave conditions that confronted the contractors on the isthmus combined to delay the work, and in time to wreck the company. The inside history of the story may never be made perfectly plain to the world. Millions of dollars' worth of machinery that was never used was shipped to the isthmus, and even to-day much of it is rotting and rusting there in the tropical climate. The whole length of the proposed canal is marked by these monuments to man's mismanagement and greed. Extensive camps and hospitals were built on the route of the canal, and thousands of workmen were sent down, only to die in the fever-ridden climate or to return home disgusted.

Testing Engines by Piano.
Pointing to a piano that was standing in the locomotive roundhouse of the Missouri Pacific railroad near Kansas City, an English visitor remarked: "Ah, I see your road supplies you with musical instruments." "Guess not," replied the foreman. "That piano is for testing engines." The Englishman thought it a joke, but when a uniformed pianist struck a note which harmonized with the noise of vibration in each part of the locomotive as it was tested, he understood that there could be no flaws or cracks in the engine. He was informed that if the noise of the locomotive made a discord with the musical note, the locomotive would be thus proved defective. The method has been discovered to be more accurate than the old way of hammering each part.—World's Work.

Valuable.
"Gee whizz!" exclaimed the first tramp. "I wish I was as rich as I look!"
"What yer talkin' about?" demanded his pal.
"Dat's straight talk. A feller down de road jist told me I look like 50 cents."—Philadelphia Ledger.

BIBLE STORIES ASSAILED.

German Professor Objects to Present Methods of Religious Instruction of Children.

Prof. Delitzsch, of Germany, of "Babel and Bible" fame, has again come to the front with elaborate objections to the present methods of imparting religious instruction in the schools. He says:

"The findings in recent excavations in Mesopotamia should be put before the school boys and girls. They should not be brought up in ignorance of the results of late investigations into the history of religion.

"Children should be taught that in Genesis there are two divergent accounts of the creation, and that both are the outcome of Babylonian myths. 'About the flood they should be taught that the biblical narrative is also a vestage of ancient Babylonian folklore.

"These ancient ages should be dug out of the scripture books and given to scholars at school or explained. If they are not, a day will come when the grownup man will throw them all over and more besides which he should retain.

"I am opposed to having school boys and girls taught that the narrative about the world being made in seven days is true, or that there is any veracity in the statements that man was made of clay, that life was breathed into his nose, and that woman was made of a man's rib. I object to the tales about the ten patriarchs, about the summits of the highest mountains being covered deep with deluge water, and about the ark of Noah.

"One truth and the whole truth can make one free."

RADIUM A CURATIVE AGENT.

Muscular Complaints Are Found to Yield to Action of the New Rays.

Rheumatism and neuralgia are cured by the radioactive energy of radium, so Dr. Darier reports in a communication to the French Academy of Medicine. He says he has employed it in the treatment of such cases. The pain, he finds, is relieved by the action of the rays on the nervous centers.

A case of facial paralysis was cured by only two applications of the new agent in only a slightly active form.

Dr. Darier thinks the injurious effects of radium on the nervous system observed by other physicians were due to lack of experience in its use.

LONDON 'PHONE SYSTEM.

New York Service Is Held to Be Vastly Better Than That of English Metropolis.

Interesting comparisons of English and American telephone systems have been made and show London to be a long way behind New York. In the latter city an area of 429 square miles, with a population of 4,000,000, as against London's 640 square miles, with a population of 6,500,000, is covered by no less than 200,000 wires, while New York, including 15,000 post office lines, can boast of 80,000. Despite this big difference and the fact that London pays a proportionately heavier rate, the service there leaves much to be desired, and as regards efficiency it certainly is not to be compared with New York.

Nightcap and Eye-Opener.
London women have revived the fashion of wearing nightcaps. It appears, remarks the Chicago Record-Herald, that a good many of them are using eye-openers, too.

NO APPETITE-EMACIATED-NERVOUS.

Many Women During the Spring Months Suffer From Extreme Lassitude, Loss of Appetite and Nervousness—What They Need Is

Pe-ru-na, the Great Tonic.

Miss Bertha M. Rush, 5435 Kincaid street, Pittsburg, Pa., Superintendent Junior Society of Methodist Protestant Church and leading Soprano of the choir, writes: "Words cannot describe my thankfulness to you for Peruna. I was a sufferer from systemic catarrh for years and was in a very much run-down condition. I was extremely nervous and had the most foolish fears over nothing. I was thin and emaciated. My physician advised me to leave this climate but as it was not convenient to do so at this time, I took the advice of a friend to use a bottle of Peruna. I took it faithfully and when the first bottle was gone I felt so much better that I bought six more and took them faithfully, after which I looked like a new woman.

"I gained in flesh, my appetite returned and all my old symptoms had disappeared. I am more than thankful to Peruna."—Miss Bertha M. Rush.

I AM TIRED.

Everybody is Tired—Spring Weather Does It—Every One Should Be Cautious.

Depression of the nervous system at the approach of spring is the cause.

General lassitude, dull, heavy sensations, continual tired feeling, with irregular appetite, and sometimes loss of sleep. Peruna meets every indication and proves itself to be perfectly adapted to all their varied peculiarities. Peruna invigorates the system, rejuvenates the feelings, restores the normal appetite and produces regular sleep.

That tired feeling which is the natural result of the depressing effect of warm weather immediately after the invigorating cold of winter, quietly disappears when Peruna is taken. Thousands are daily testifying to its priceless benefit.

Mrs. H. Kassatt, 1309 W. 13th street, Des Moines, Ia., writes: "I am happy to give my endorsement for your valuable medicine, Peruna, as I consider it a valuable medicine to take when the system is run down from overwork. About two years ago I felt that I must take a long rest as I had been unable to work for over a month and could not regain my strength. I could not sleep at night and was in a very nervous, high strung condition. I decided to try what Peruna would do to build up my strength, and am pleased to say that I began to improve very shortly, and in less than two months I was able to take up my work, and felt better than I have for years. I take it now twice a year and find that it keeps me in perfect health." Mrs. Kassatt was for over ten years the manager of a plant furnishing ladies' wear and employing hundreds of women.

ITCHING ECZEMA

And All Other Itching and Scaly Eruptions Cured by Cuticura—Complete Treatment $1.00.

The agonizing itching and burning of the skin, as in eczema; the frightful scaling, as in psoriasis; the loss of hair and crusting the scalp, as in scalded head; the facial disfigurement, as in pimples and ringworm; the awful suffering of infants and the anxiety of worn-out parents, as in milk crust, tetter and salt rheum—all demand a remedy of almost superhuman virtues to successfully cope with them. That Cuticura Soap, Ointment and Pills are such stands proven beyond all doubt. No statement is made regarding them that is not justified by the strongest evidence.

Holding It.

"Excuse me," he said, returning; "but you are sitting on my hat."

"I know it," replied the other, rising; "I was afraid some one would take it while you were gone."—Yonkers Statesman.

The Out Wonder.

The Editor must tell its readers of this marvel. It originated with the largest farm seed growers in the world, the John A. Salzer Seed Co., La Crosse, Wis. It has stiff straw, stands up like a stone wall, is white, heavy, and has long ears, filled to the tip with fat, plump kernels. It is a great storer, 80 stocks from one kernel. IF YOU WILL SEND THIS NOTICE AND 10c IN STAMPS to above address, you will get a sample of this Out Wonder, which yielded in 1903, in 40 States from 250 to 310 bu. per acre, together with other farm seed samples and their big catalog. ANNOUNCEMENTS.

FOR CONGRESS:

We are authorized to announce South Trimble as a candidate for re-election as Congressman from this district, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

We are authorized to announce W. P. Kimball, of Fayette county, as a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Congress from Seventh District, subject to the action of the district convention to be held in the city of Lexington on Thursday, May 12, 1904.

SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS.

We are authorized to announce F. L. McChesney as a candidate for the office of County Superintendent, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

We are authorized to announce Miss Wallace Montague as a candidate for the office of Superintendent of Public Schools of Bourbon county, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

FOR REPRESENTATIVE.

We are authorized to announce W. W. Shropshire as a candidate for the office of Representative of Bourbon county in the next General Assembly, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

We are authorized to announce T. Porter Smith as a candidate for the office of Representative of Bourbon county in the next General Assembly, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

We are authorized to announce Harvey Hibler as a candidate for Sheriff of Bourbon County, with Brutus J. Clay, Jr., and James Burke as deputies, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

FOR JUDGE OF COURT OF APPEALS.

TO THE VOTERS OF THE FIFTH APPELLATE COURT OF KENTUCKY:—I am a candidate for Judge of the Court of Appeals from this District, subject to the action of the Democratic party. As Circuit Judge, it became my duty to try a number of criminal cases, which have become a part of the State's history and at a most critical time. As Judge of the State Fiscal Court, it fell to my lot to construe the Statutes adopted, to put in force the provisions of the new Constitution, as well as to construe the present Constitution whenever a controversy arose as to its proper construction. Almost innumerable cases have been burdened the dockets of my court, touching the rights of corporations and the exercise of franchise under law. How well I have discharged my duties under such trying circumstances, is left to you to determine.

I will be very grateful to all who feel they can assist me to secure the high position and office to which I aspire.

Very respectfully,
JAMES E. CANTRILL.

AMUSEMENTS.

AMELIA BINGHAM AT THE LEXINGTON OPERA HOUSE.

—Miss Amelia Bingham in "Olympie" is presenting an entirely different kind of a play from those with which her fame has been chiefly associated since her advent as a star. It is a semi-historical romantic drama, much of the same kind that Sardou so cunningly fashioned for Fanny Davenport, and gives Miss Bingham a chance to display her emotional powers at their best. The play is a story of the picturesque and interesting period of the fifteenth Louis of France and shows beautiful stage pictures and charming gowns, powdered wigs, and the loves and intrigues of the most brilliant of courts. Miss Bingham's supporting company is Mr. Creston Clark who is very favorably remembered in this section where he formerly appeared as a star, Edgar L. Davenport, Harry Woodruff and 30 others.

LIVE STOCK, CROP, ETC.

—Fletcher Mann, of this city, purchased last week a car load of good mules at Lancaster.

—In Montgomery, Asa Setters bought 80 tons of baled hay from Will Bramblett at $14 per ton.

—Mr. I. S. Tevis, of Boyle, sold to a Rockville, Ind., syndicate a 3-year-old jack for $900.

—A total of 3,991,507 hogsheds of tobacco have been sold on the Louisville market since 1880. Sales since 1896 total $40,000,000.

—A. J. Hitch sold 35 hds. common and medium Harrison county tobacco at the People's House, Louisville, at an average of $8.15.

—C. J. Graves, Jr., sold to F. D. Vories, of Shelby county, his farm of 114 acres located six miles from Lexington on the DeLong pike, at $100 per acre.

—Senator J. W. Bailey, of Texas, bought the Thomas Shelby farm, three miles from Lexington on the Versailles pike, containing 46½ acres for $9,180.

—Acolyte 2:21, the son of Onward 2:25½, for whom S. S. Coxey once paid Col. R. P. Pepper $40,000, sold at auction in Philadelphia recently for $400. He is twenty years of age and has sixteen in the 2:30 list.

—Brice Steele's good race mare, Mary Molloy, foaled a white face and stockings colt by Pink Coat. Mr. Steele has sold the foal to Mr. Hal Woodford for $300, and is now wishing some friend would give him a good kicking, as the colt could easily be sold for $1,000.

—Ed. Downing, of Lexington, who raised a crop of tobacco under cover of canvas last season, is expecting to raise another crop under canvas this year. He had two acres under canvas which, when cut and dried, weighed 4,246 pounds, which he sold at 11.82 cents, netting him $501.88, or $250.94 an acre.

—In Woodford, W. H. Sudduth bought a lot of corn from J. T. Wilhoit at $3.25 a bbl. Corn in small quantities has been selling in the country at $3.50. J. M. Searcy sold to Isham Bailey & Co. 20,000 lbs. of hemp at $5 per 112 lbs. Z. T. Sellers sold 19 hds. of tobacco in Louisville last week at $13.75 to $6.40, an average of $9.93.

—Lady Yeiser, the famous broodmare and dam of the ex-queen of the pacing turf, Lottie Lorraine, 2:05½, and Don Cozine, 2:10, and Don Pizarro, three-year-old record 2:14, and seven others with records better than 2:30, is dead at Cecilian Park, near Danville, at the advanced age of twenty-two years. She was one of the greatest broodmares in the country, and her death will be keenly felt in the trotting world.

—Here is what the trusts are doing: Within the last eighteen months there has been a shrinkage of value in cattle, hogs, sheep and other live stock interests in the United States to the enormous total of $850,000,000. The sum is so astounding that it may seem incredible to the general public, and yet these figures are not exaggerated. A decline of $3.50 per hundred pounds in the price of beef cattle means the loss of $35 to the owner of a 1,000 pound steer. On swine the decline has not been quite so heavy, and yet it has amounted to from $3 to $6 per hog.

STYLISH AND BEAUTIFUL.—The most stylish and beautiful line of Millinery ever brought to this section of the country will be seen at the display at Mrs. Corne Watson Baird's on Saturday, April 2. She has secured the services of the most experienced up-to-date trimmer that money could employ, and when you leave your order for a hat or bonnet to be trimmed you may depend on getting it on the time set. Don't fail to take a look at her stock.

CURES WITHOUT STOMACH DOSING.

Hyomei Cures Catarrh by Simple Breathing. Clarke & Co. Refund Money if it Fails to Cure.

A long stride toward solving the mystery of curing catarrh was taken with the discovery of Hyomei. In fact the percentage of cures by this treatment proves its equal to the final tests.

The folly of taking medicine into the stomach to cure catarrh of the nose, throat and lungs, has been realized by the physicians, but not until Hyomei was known, had they a practical method that would obviate stomach dosing.

A complete Hyomei outfit costs but $1 consists of a neat pocket inhaler, that can be used anywhere without attracting attention, a medicine dropper and a bottle of Hyomei.

Breathing Hyomei through the inhaler, every particle of air that enters the nose, throat and lungs is charged with a healing balsam that soothes and allays all irritation, kills the catarrhal germs and enriches the blood with additional ozone.

Clarke & Co. have so much faith in the power of Hyomei to cure catarrh, that they are selling it under their personal guarantee to refund them money if it does give positive relief.

During odd moments when not engaged in his duties as a "plain clothes" detective Patrolman Robert H. Hibbard, of New York city, found time to study law with such success that he retired from the force recently and will at once take up the practice of his profession. Hibbard is an LL. B., having completed courses in the New York university law school and the New York Law school. He was admitted to the bar in July, after serving eight years as a policeman.

Mercury-Vapor Lamps.

Mercury-vapor lamps produce a light, as is well known, that is greenish blue in color, and which produces an unpleasant effect, not inaptly described as "ghastly," on the faces of persons illuminated by it. This is because the spectrum of the light has no red in it. It has been proposed to add a red reflector or globe to correct this, but the experiment shows that the light is not changed in color, but obstructed.

When It Is Ready to Bake.

Bread is ready for the oven if, when touched with the finger, the dough springs back, leaving no dent. The old theory that bread must be kneaded stiff with flour in order to be good is not altogether reliable. It is much easier to work if mixed soft, rises quicker and is just as delicious as if made the old way.

Precocious Children.

John Stuart Mill was studying Greek at three, had practically mastered the language at seven, and a year later was acting as schoolmaster to his younger brothers and sisters. John Ruskin actually produced a manuscript work in three volumes before he reached his seventh birthday.

Speed.

I found the motorman an intelligent and courteous fellow.

"Would you like to drive a car at the rate of a hundred miles an hour?" I asked.

"Not unless I were passing people who were signalling me to stop," he replied. —Detroit Free Press
